The General Assembly had another full week, now having reached the Third Reading deadline in both chambers. Legislators will work in-district next week and return to Springfield on April 30 to work almost daily until the planned adjournment of May 24. The week of May 25-31 has been reserved as a “contingent” session for the budget.

There are over 300 Senate bills now in the House and more than 300 House bills moved to the Senate.
